Fort Hunter Liggett (FHL) Parks Reserve Forces Training Area (PRFTA) Personal Firearms Registration

All firearms that are brought aboard FHL/PRFTA need to be registered with Fort Hunter Liggett Directorate of Emergency Services (DES) through the Visitor Control Center (VCC). If you wish to bring a firearm aboard that is not registered with FHL DES or you do not have proof of registration you will need to register it.

Registration Process: To register your firearms you will need to fill out FHL Form 8-1 with all of the firearms you wish to bring aboard FHL/PRFTA. If you are registering more than 10 firearms you will need to fill out FHL Form 8-1a along with this form. Minors do not register firearms, the adult that is sponsoring the minor will register the firearms under his/her name. FHL Form 8-1 and 8-1a can be found on iSportsman at this web site: <https://fthunter.isportsman.net/>. Once filled out the form can be sent to the VCC for processing. A copy of your Real ID compliant driver license/ID must be submitted with your registration form. Upon completion of registration the VCC will email you your copy showing proof of registration. You can send the FHL Form 8-1 to the VCC three different ways:

1. Can be mailed to: Directorate of Emergency Services
Attn: Firearms Registration
P.O. Box 893
Fort Hunter Liggett, CA 93928-0893
2. Can be Emailed to: usarmy.hunterliggett.id-readiness.mbx.des-vcc@mail.mil

Registering Additional Firearms: If you wish to bring a new firearm aboard that is not registered on your current registration list you will need to register it. To do this you will need to resubmit a FHL Form 8-1 with all of the firearms you wish to bring aboard FHL/PRFTA, not just the new one. VCC staff will reregister your firearms and will send you a new firearms receipt with the firearms listed on the current FHL Form 8-1. All firearms registered to you not listed on the most current FHL Form 8-1 will be deleted from your record.

If you have any questions on registering a Firearm contact the VCC at 831-386-3874.
